Thank you for expressing an interest in volunteering with the National Congress of Black Women Inc-Kansas City Chapter, (NCBW-KC). We are dedicated to meeting the critical needs of our community by making available volunteer opportunities and community service projects for neighborhood members, youth, friends and people who care about making a significant difference in our community.

NCBW-KC is connected with other Black non-profits, area-wide non-profit organizations, community-based agencies and faith-based organizations that offer opportunities and provide services to the underserved. We, the National Congress of Black Women Inc.-Kansas City Chapter, serve as a Steward for the purpose of mobilizing and administering volunteers to these serving organizations so that everyone may directly contribute to the development of local solutions to local problems faced in our community.
