

*Principles of the Kansas City Chapter
Of the
National Congress of Black Women, Incorporated*

The Kansas City Chapter upholds the principles and standards of our National Chapter and Kansas City Chapter, which models those of our Founder and First National Chair, Shirley Chisholm.

We the Kansas City Chapter of the National Congress of Black Women, Incorporated:

- ~ Uphold the professional reputation of our National Chapter and our founding leaders who served as civil rights activists, legislators, and educators
- ~ Abide by the U.S. Constitution and all laws (local, state and federal)
- ~ Maintain dignity in who we are and what we do individually and collectively
- ~ Demand a seat at the table, so together sound decisions are made
- ~ Volunteer, serve and educate our families and communities
- ~ Conduct ourselves as respectable women who expect respect in return
- ~ We VOTE, We LEAD, We REPRESENT those without a voice, or a minimal voice
- ~ Maintain a positive image of Black Women to our youth and our communities
- ~ Maintain Integrity and Truthfulness
- ~ Lend a hand to our fellow sister no matter her stage of life
