BLACK WOMEN BEYOND THE LABELS

Saturday, November 12th, 2022 | 6:00PM - 11:00PM Marriott Country Club Plaza, 4445 Main Street Kansas City, Missouri 64111

The National Congress of Black Women, Inc. - Kansas City Chapter (NCBW-KC) cordially invite you to join us at our signature event, The Ebony Rose Scholarship & Awards Black Tie Gala, as we celebrate our 9th Anniversary of awarding educational scholarships and acknowledging our community members and organizations for their amazing work in Kansas City.

The Scholarship & Awards Black Tie Gala has been affectionately and accurately rebranded The Ebony Rose Scholarship and Awards Gala to reflect on our purpose, history, and future as a premier Black Woman membership organization.

We believe our constituents, shareholders, community members, organizations, and participants deserve their love, acknowledgements, and appreciation while they can receive it. An Ebony Rose is meant to be a movement and a source of inspiration.

We are honored to have City of Kansas City, Missouri Mayor Quinton Lucas as our keynote speaker, and Kansas Department of Administration, Office of The Secretary, Dr. DeAngela Burns-Wallace as the opening speaker, as we embrace this year's theme, Black Women: "Beyond the Labels."

Hosted by Julee Jonez, Radio Personality for KPRS Hot 103 JAMZ, our evening will be filled with a silent auction, music, pictures, fashion & more marketplace, delectable dishes, and a complimentary cocktail reception.

Your support and participation are vital to the Gala's mission and success. We invite you to participate as an Event Sponsor and/or place an Ad in our Souvenir Journal. We also ask your consideration in sponsorship of our "IGotUSis" Membership drive, where your contribution will help facilitate Kansas City's "New Class" of upcoming Black Women leaders. Eligible purchases will be tax deductible.

Please refer to the enclosed Sponsorship and Advertisement Form for additional details. NCBW-KC is a federal and state 501 (c) 3 Tax Exempt Organization. Federal ID #52-1436163; Missouri State ID #22069445.

If you have questions regarding sponsorships or general questions about the event, please contact The Ebony Rose Gala Co-Chair, Sylvya Stevenson at 816-863-9167 or by email at Sylvya.Stevenson@ncbwkansascity.org.

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Sylvya Stevenson The Ebony Rose Gala Co-Chair Chapter President

Celeste Chaney The Ebony Rose Gala Co-Chair Board Member

OPENING SPEAKER DR. DEANGELA BURNS-WALLACE

Prior to Governor Kelly's appointment, Dr. DeAngela Burns-Wallace served as the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies at the University of Kansas.

Dr. Burns-Wallace began her career as a Foreign Service Officer (FSO) with the U.S. Department of State. She served Foreign Service tours in Guangzhou and Beijing, China; Pretoria, South Africa; and in Washington D.C. She also is trained in French and Mandarin Chinese.

Dr. Burns-Wallace has been selected for various leadership opportunities, awards and honors throughout her higher education and government career including being selected for the 2019 Leadership Kansas cohort, the 2013-14 American Council on Education Emerging Leaders Fellowship, the University Innovation Alliance as a campus leader and the 2018 White House Champions of Change College Opportunity. She also earned a Superior Honor and three Meritorious Honor awards from the U.S. State Department.

In her work over the last few years, she has delivered various keynotes and training around the country including a presentation at SXSW EDU on Utilizing Predictive Analytics and her 2018 "Ed Talk" entitled The Hidden Shame of Higher Education Administrators – Productivity. Dr. Burns-Wallace serves as a national trainer and curriculum developer for various national professional development organizations, non-profits and higher education institutions on such issues as micro-aggressions, multi-generational workplace differences, diversity and inclusion, change management, professional development pathways and strategic planning.

Service is also a cornerstone of her journey. Dr. Burns-Wallace was elected to the Stanford University Board of Trustees in 2020, and she previously has held board roles in numerous local, regional and national organizations such as Stanford University's Board of Governors, the College Board, Heart of Missouri United Way and St. Louis Graduates. She also has served on national and international selection committees including Gates Millennium Scholars, Dell Foundation Scholars, and Rhodes, Marshall and Fulbright fellowships. She is an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sorority Inc., a globally-impactful organization committed to servant-leadership in their communities.

Dr. Burns-Wallace holds a dual bachelor's degree in international relations and African American studies from Stanford University, a Master in Public Affairs from the Princeton School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University and a doctorate in education from the University of Pennsylvania. Her research focuses on issues of access and success for students of color and low-income students throughout higher education as well as equity-minded leadership. Dr. Burns-Wallace holds a courtesy associate professor appointment in KU's Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies in the School of Education, as well as the Department of African and African-American Studies in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Additionally, she holds faculty appoints at the University of Southern California and the University of Missouri.

She is originally from Kansas City, Missouri, and is the proud mother to son Xavier.

keynote speaker MAYOR QUINTON LUCAS

Quinton Lucas, "Mayor Q," was sworn in as the 55th mayor of Kansas City on August 1, 2019.

As mayor, Quinton has prioritized making Kansas City's neighborhoods safer, creating more accessible and affordable housing and public transportation, fostering a healthier community and improving basic services. Quinton created and chairs the City's Special Committee on Housing Policy.

Born and raised in Kansas City, Quinton has spent most of his life in the city's urban core. As a child, he moved often and experienced homelessness, sometimes staying with family or friends, or residing in a motel. Despite these challenges, Quinton remained focused on his schoolwork, earning academic scholarships to high school, college and Cornell Law School before returning home to Kansas City.

Since 2012, Quinton has been a member of the University of Kansas Law School faculty, where he served as one of the youngest tenure-track law professors in the country. He is active in the Kansas City community and volunteers extensively in area schools and organizations, including providing mentorship in local prisons.

Mayor Quinton Lucas lives in the Historic 18th and Vine Jazz District, which he previously represented on the City Council.
